

To,
The Principal,

Sub: Best Practices of Schools: Engaging All Learners

Dear,

The Department of Education, Lady Irwin College, University of Delhi, has been organising National Conferences in Education for now over two decades. These Conferences were however designated the title 'National Conference on Learning - NCL' and has been organised under this title since the last four years, with a vision to view 'Learning' from the perspectives for different stakeholders and identifying elements for success in 'Learning'.

Recognising the importance of 'Learning' as universal and accepting that Learning enhances our understanding of the world around us, ensuring more and better opportunities and thereby helping us improve the quality of life, we have this year taken up on ourselves to organise three days 'International Conference on Learning - ICL-2018' from September 28,2018 to September 30, 2018.

Education at large as well as Special and Inclusive Education are an important and integral part of contemporary paradigm of education and learning in our country and globally.

You and your school faculty has been vast experiences and have made vast efforts towards education, empowerment, sensitization, interface between different agencies as well as your presence in policy making leadership and administration at school and higher education.

We would like to invite you and your school faculty to present any Best Practices in Education of your own institution/s and/or of your institution's faculty. Each presenter will be allotted 10 minutes to give a lucid presentation to initiate a panel discussion on the above-mentioned area. Multi-media may be used for the same.

We also plan to publish the Best Practices in Education into a peer reviewed book with an ISSN number. We are looking forward to your esteemed presence and/ or of your faculty for the session

Date: 29th Sep2018

Venue: Deptt. Of Education

Time: 2.30pm to 3.30pm
