Placement & Internship

Internships

MSc students go for summer internships of 4-6 weeks duration after the second semester to different organisations/institutes/food companies/laboratories. PGDDPHN students go for a 3-month internship to a hospital after one year of coursework. BSc. (Hons) Food Technology students also do internships during their end semester breaks. The year wise details of internship are presented here for the period 2015-2020.
