

Name: Dr. Meenal Jain

Designation: Assistant Professor (Ad-hoc)

Email id: meenal_11287@yahoo.co.in, meenal.jain@lic.du.ac.in

Educational Qualifications: M.Sc., Ph.D. (Resource Management & Design Application), University of Delhi, PG Diploma (Environment and Sustainable Development), IGNOU

Research Areas: Renewable energy, energy policy, environment management, green buildings, water management, waste management, environment education and sustainable development

Brief bio: Dr. Jain has more than a decade of rich experience in teaching and research. She has developed curricula, written study materials for universities; extensively written for various national and international journals, books and magazines and has been guiding masters' researches in the areas of environment and sustainability. She has been involved with NCERT as an expert for a project on Training of teachers of Ichchavar Block (Madhya Pradesh) for promoting Sustainable Development at elementary level. A gold medalist in PhD, her doctoral research focused on assessment of government initiatives in off-grid solar applications for commercial establishments in six states of India. It was a collaborative study with Michigan State University, USA, and was awarded the prestigious Anupa Sahi Siddhu Gold Medal for excellence in doctoral work at Lady Irwin College in 2017. A writer for NAAC, she has also been associated with a number of committees at college level including placement cell, prospectus committee and annual report committee to name a few.