

Dr. Sunil Kumar serves as an Assistant Professor in the Department of Journalism at Lady Irwin College, specializing in Media Production and Management. His research focuses on the intersections of social media and political communication. Dr. Kumar's career began with Zee Group as a Delhi correspondent, leading to roles with India's top media houses and contributions to the social media site www.iamindna.com. He regularly writes career-oriented columns for the Indian Express' "Jansatta" and teaches at the Delhi School of Journalism, University of Delhi. His expertise has been recognized with the International Science Film Fiction Award in 2019 for his film "BAHULAK."

