

Ms. Ashima Anand

Ashima Anand is an Assistant Professor in the Department of Fabric and Apparel Science at Lady Irwin College.

Nature of Appointment:

Permanent

Qualifications:

Ashima Anand has completed her graduation in B.Sc. Home Science and M.Sc. Textiles and Clothing from Lady Irwin College. She has completed her B.Ed. and M.Ed. from Lady Irwin College and Punjab University, respectively. Presently she is pursuing Ph.D. from Department of Home Science, University of Delhi.

Experience:

She has dedicated almost two decades in shaping the minds of both undergraduate and postgraduate students.

Areas of Interest:

Her primary focus has been on traditional Indian textiles, with an emphasis on raising awareness in sustainable textile traditions. Besides this, Advanced Pattern Making, Garment Manufacturing Technology, use of Computers in Textile and Apparel Industry are her other interest areas.

Publications:

She has published papers in UGC CARE-listed journals, presented at international and national conferences, and contributed chapters to books and manuals. She has written several chapters for Indira Gandhi National Open University and the Board of Open Schooling and Skill Education, Sikkim. In the academic realm, she has guided 13 masters' dissertations as well.