

Name: Dr. Shanta Rani Kerketta

Designation: Associate Professor

Email id: shantar.tirkey@lic.du.ac.in Educational qualifications: PhD degree in International Business from Delhi School of Economics, MA in Economics from Jawaharlal Nehru University and MSc in Economics and Financial Economics from University of Nottingham, UK

Research Areas: Socioeconomic development and Empowerment of Tribal India

Brief bio: Dr. Shanta Rani Kerketta holds a PhD degree in International Business from Delhi School of Economics, MA in Economics from Jawaharlal Nehru University and MSc in Economics and Financial Economics from University of Nottingham, UK. Her main areas of interest are International Economics and Socioeconomic development and Empowerment of Tribal India. She has authored a book titled International Business-Non-Tariff Barriers (2018) and several papers in reputed journals. She has recently completed a research project on the topic “Participation of Tribal Women in Local Economy: Case Studies of Jharkhand and Assam (2019-20)” with collaboration with Indian Social Institute, New Delhi. She has presented many papers in national conferences. She is a member of Indian Economics and Allied Sciences Association.